THE WEATHER IS FINE; THE NIGHTS ARE COOL.

Report of British Press Bureau on the War Operations in France.

For Four Days There has been a Lull in the Fighting. Advantage Taken of the Arrival of Reinforcements to Relieve the Troops Who Have been on the First Line for Some Time.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Sept. 28, 9:15 p.m.—The official press bureau last night issued a descriptive account of the operations in France of the British and French armies in immediate touch with it, communicated by an eyewitness present at the headquarters of Field Marshal John French. This account, which supplements that issued September 24 from general headquarters, follows:

"September 25, 1914.—For four days there has been a comparative lull all along our front. This has been accompanied by a spell of fine weather, though the nights are now much cooler. One cannot have everything, however, and one evil result of the sunshine has been the release of the flies, which were torpid during the wet days.

"Advantage has been taken of the arrival of reinforcements to relieve fresh troops the men who have been on the firing line for some time. Several units therefore have received their baptism of fire during the week.

"Since the last letter left general headquarters evidence has been received which points to the fact that during counter-attacks on the night of Sunday, the 28th, the German infantry fired into each other as the result of an attempt to carry out the dangerous expedient of a converging advance in the dark.

"Opposite one portion of our position a considerable massing of hostile forces was observed before dark and some hours later a furious fusillade was heard in front of our line, though no bullets came over our trenches.

"The narrative begins with September 21 and covers only two days. On Monday the 21st there was but little rain, and the weather took a turn for the better, which has been maintained. The action was practically confined to the artillery, our runs at one point shelling and driving away the enemy, who were endeavoring to construct a redoubt. The Germans for their part expended a large number of heavy shells in long range bombardment of a village.

"Reconnoitering parties sent out during the night of 21-22 discovered some deserted trenches, and in them, or near them, in the woods, over 100 dead and wounded were picked up. A number of rifles, ammunition and equipment also were found. Portions of the enemy's forces had withdrawn for some distance.

"Tuesday, 22, was also fine with less wind, and was one of the most uneventful days that has passed since we reached the front. There was less artillery work on either side, the Germans nevertheless giving another village a taste of their long range bombardment.

"The spot thus honored was not far from the ridge where some of the most severe fighting in which we have taken part has occurred. All over this 'no man's land' between the lines, the bodies of German infantry are still lying in heaps where they have fallen at different times.

"Espionage plays so large a part in the conduct of the war by the Germans that it is difficult to avoid further reference to the subject. They have evidently never forgotten the saying of Frederick the Great: 'When Marshal Soult goes to war he is followed by a hundred cooks; when I take the field I am preceded by a hundred spies.'

"Indeed, until about twenty years ago there was a paragraph in their field service regulation directing that the service of 'pious' in the field should always be supplemented by a system of espionage.

"Though such instructions are no longer in vogue, the system is still in vogue.

TRIBUTE TO KAISER FROM CHAMBERLAIN.

(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.)

BERLIN (via London, 2:50 p.m.) Sept. 28.—There is in circulation in Berlin a copy of the International Montschicht, in which there appears an article concerning Emperor William from the pen of Houston Stewart Chamberlain, an English author, who has lived in Germany and Austria since 1895.

Mr. Chamberlain says that he has often met Emperor William with ceremony. He declares that His Majesty's guiding principles are a deep feeling of responsibility before God and a determination to preserve peace for Germany. The highest desire of Emperor William, Mr. Chamberlain writes, was to be able to say at his deathbed: 'I have preserved peace for my country. History will call me the peace Emperor.'

FRANCE EXPLAINS
DUMDUM BULLETS.

(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.)

BERLIN (via London, 2:50 p.m.) Sept. 28.—The French government, according to information given out in Berlin, has admitted the possession of dumdum bullets, but explains that they were made only for shooting deaths of two persons. It is here that thousands of dumdum bullets have been found on battlefields and that they have been used for war purposes.

SENDS GREETING
FROM AEROPLANE.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Sept. 28, 9:02 a.m.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the American and Spanish embassies have requested official details of the bomb-throwing from a Taube aeroplane last night. The message dropped in the city by the aviator read:

To Parisians: Greetings from a German aeroplane.
[Signed] WOLFF DECKEN.

AMERICAN EMBASSY
SEVERELY SHAKEN.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The American Embassy building in Paris was severely shaken by the explosion of one of the bombs dropped into that city yesterday from a German aeroplane. Ambassador Herrick reported the incident to the State Department by cable today without comment. With the Embassy staff, Mr. Herrick made a personal investigation of the damage caused by the bomb, which besides causing the death of two persons, injured the masonry of surrounding buildings and perforated steel shutters. The State Department will take no action on the report.

Report German Officer a Suicide.
(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Sept. 28, 9:10 a.m.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the Central News says a report has reached there that the German commander at Muelhausen, in Alsace, has committed suicide in despair at the fact that he was unable to pass the Vosges. He had previously telegraphed the German General Staff to come and see the difficulties for itself.

DENIALS FROM BERLIN
OF ADVANCE BY ENEMY.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Sept. 28, 9:40 p.m.—A wireless dispatch to the Marconi Company from Berlin gives the following official statement issued in the German capital today:

"There is no change in the situation in any of the theaters of war and reports concerning a victorious advance of the enemy are untrue."

"Reports of the fall of two of the Przemysl forts are inventions. The Austrian government alleges that Russian troops have been using dumdum cartridges and in the course of their protest they remarked that it is not at present the intention of the commander-in-chief of the Austro-Hungarian army to adopt reprisals."

By order of the military command and the province of Brandenburg, the Vorwaerts, organ of the Social Democratic party, has suspended publication indefinitely.

Emperor William on Saturday visited Prince Oscar, one of his sons, who is ill with heart trouble at Metz. The Duke of Brunswick, sister of the Prince, arrived the same day and will remain with her brother until he returns to the front.

A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Igalo, Dalmatia, asserts that the Austrian forts at Cattaro on September 19 were captured by the Germans.

The forts had intercepted a wireless message concerning the movement in the direction of Cattaro of fifteen warships, among them the German battleship Goeben.

The official report concerning the sinking recently of the three British cruisers, Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue, by the German submarine U-9 in the North Sea, asserts that the U-9 was in action one hour. This was the time elapsing between bringing the first and the last torpedo.

The British cruisers, according to the report, did not fire a single shot. When they were sunk they were in the act of retreating. The German vessels accompanying the submarine fleet which related that the German submarines took part in the attack, and that they were sunk. Several British cruisers, torpedo boats and destroyers pursued the U-9 until evening, going as far as the Terschelling banks, where the submarine escaped under cover of night.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

BERLIN (via London, 2:50 p.m.) Sept. 28.—The response of the German public to the efforts of the government to raise a war fund of five billion marks ($1,250,000,000) has, it is asserted here, removed all anxiety the nation may have had regarding its ability to meet financial obligations due to the war.

Originally the Reichstag allowed a war credit of five billion marks in addition to the war treasure, and of this amount 4,000,000,000 marks has been subscribed by the public without straining seriously the financial resources of the empire.

According to military authorities the war is costing Germany about 20,000,000 marks ($5,000,000) a day. Inclusive of the money spent on day-to-day necessities, the nation has been deprived of their breadwinners. The means of the government at the beginning of the war, not counting the permanent war fund, including the reserve funds of the Reichsbank, amounted to about 500,000,000 marks ($125,000,000). In the meantime, however, has been considerably increased through the issue of notes. It is thought, therefore, that the money available for the purposes of the campaign can be increased if necessary, by several billion marks.

The amount which the government could borrow from the Reichsbank is unknown at the present time. The German government has been extraordinarily heavy and the fact that those of the enemy have been even greater is poor consolation. The troops are confident that in the end they will win the action.

A long column of French prisoners of war arrived during the week from the direction of Rheims. Last Monday the correspondent met a column of about 1000 men, whose faces showed that they were glad to have at last escaped the turmoil and terrors of this greatest of modern battlefields.

Continuing, the correspondent says: "My own experience and that of officers is that the population of Northern France is maintaining a satisfactory attitude. We meet such friendliness as is reasonable to expect under the circumstances. Conditions in France are much better than in Belgium."

During the second week of September, which led to the claim that Belgians and French had retaken the city is described in the Cologne Gazette. This paper declares that on the second day of the fighting Belgian troops advanced to within two kilometers (a little over one mile) of the Louvain railroad station and poured a heavy artillery fire over the station and the surrounding neighborhood. This compelled the small force of occupation to fall back before three Belgian divisions which were led by King Albert himself. The King displayed wonderful bravery. A little later, however, the German field howitzers shelled the enemy with such force that a hasty retreat resulted. The losses of the Belgians were heavy, while the German artillery did not lose a single man in killed or wounded.

"The following day the Cologne Gazette continues, the Germans who in the meanwhile have been reinforced, retired on the night of the 22nd. In fact that the Belgians were numerous four times superior to the Germans, they completely defeated them. The fighting German naval and coast artillery reserves distinguished themselves. They had been taken by surprise the day before. On the 23rd and day the losses of the Belgians were also very heavy."

The Japanese Legation says that the reason for taking over the railway. A correspondent at Wei Hsien sends the following, under date of September 28:

"The Japanese have gone in to the west along the railway, taking many guards on the Wei Hsien road. The city is crowded with Chinese soldiers who are quartered in homes and in the streets. The Japanese have sent numerous prisoners of Japanese, fearing forced labor and discipline in both armies is a good."

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Glowing Reports are Brought to Capt. Fredericks.

Campaign Mapped Out that will Swing the State.

Standard-bearer Starts His Northern Tour at Yreka.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, Sept. 28.—Bringing glowing reports from their districts, twenty-two chairmen of Republican county central committees in Northern and Central California and as many more party leaders met with Capt. John D. Fredericks, their standard-bearer, here today to map out an aggressive campaign.

With Mrs. Fredericks, Congressman
Joseph R. Knowland and C. J. Sullivan, his manager, Capt. Fredericks left last night for Yreka to open his northern tour.

The meeting was held at the headquarters of the State Central Committee and was presided over by Walter H. Bacon, secretary of the executive body of the State organization.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS.

Reports of conditions in their respective counties were made by the chairmen and, without exception, were of an encouraging nature. Among those present at the gathering, in addition to the committee men, were Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, candidate for United States Senator;
Major Frank K. Mott of Oakland,
Judge Frank H. Short of Fresno,
Judge Fred St. Sure of Alameda, Walter B. Fawcett of Oakland, William C.
Ralston, member of the State Executive Committee, Secretary of State
Frank C. Jordan and others.

BIG PLURALITY.

Cheering news was brought from Santa Clara by W. B. Harrington. He said this:

"In Santa Clara we have the largest proportionate Republican registration of any county in the State. We are working untidily and I don't hesitate to tell you that when the votes are counted Capt. Fredericks will have a plurality in Santa Clara of 5000."

Col. Albert C. Henshaw, chairman of the San Francisco County Central Committee, also ventured a prediction.
"We're going to give Capt. Fredericks a plurality of from 15,000 to 20,000," he declared.

The plan of organization work which was adopted was proposed by
W. C. Walker of Sacramento. W. C.
Mixon of Woodland suggested that editors of Republican newspapers in Northern California be called to a conference to assist in the campaign.

Talks were made by Capt. Fredericks, Col. Castle, Ralph Hathorn, W.
B. Fawcett, former Senator E. H. Martineau of Marin, W. R. Bacon and others.

ORGANIZATION GETS IT ALL.

NEW YORK PRIMARY COMES OUT
ACCORDING TO SCHEDULE.

Whitman is the Republican Candidate for Governor, Glynn the Democratic, While Calder and Gerard will be the Opposing Senatorial Candidates—Vote is Light.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Organization candidates led strongly in the early returns in this city in the primaries for the Republican and Democratic nominations for Governor and United States Senator. Gov. Martin
H. Glynn led John A. Hennessey by approximately four to one in the Democratic gubernatorial primaries.

In the Democratic contest for United States Senator, James W.
Gerard, United States Ambassador to Germany, was running ahead of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, by about four and one-half to one.

In the Republican primaries for Governor, Charles S. Whitman, District Attorney of New York county, was leading Job Hedges, Republican candidate for Governor two years ago, by nearly five to one. Harvey D. Hinman, former State Senator, ran considerably behind Hedges.

Representative William W. Calder of Brooklyn led James W. Wadsworth, Jr., former Speaker of the State Assembly, by nearly five to one, for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, and David Jayne Hill had received only about one-eighth as many votes as Wadsworth.

The contest for Governor in the "Progressive" primaries was running very close. The earliest returns showed William Sulzer, present Assemblyman, and last year impeached as the Democratic Governor, ahead of Frederick M. Davenport, former Republican State Senator and "Progressive" candidate for Lieutenant-Governor in 1912 by about forty votes.
Subsequent returns of the early evening, however, showed a slight majority in favor of Davenport.

thing is pillaged. The avenues of Diest and Thirteenth are destroyed. "In the center the night is extraordinarily picturesque—gloomy, abominable and more so in the evening when the full moon is shining over the mass of ruins, it is really fantastic, diabolical to look at. The center of old Louvain, the old city of the Dukes of Brabant, exists no longer; a new city will have to be built in the center of the quarters spared by the torch."

REPRISAL DAYS IN MEXICO CITY.

Mansions of Millionaires Are Confiscated.

Military Law Reigns; Firing Squads Are Active.

BY GEORGE ADDISON HUGHES.
(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

MEXICO CITY (Mex.) Sept. 28.—Reprisals that threaten the very life of peace for which Mexico has shed so much blood, have already begun.

Death stalks through the gayly-decorated mansions of the city, and the hands of the conquerors are busy with the blood of the vanquished.

Reprisals are being taken against the mansions of the millionaires, and the hands of the conquerors are busy with the blood of the vanquished.

CARRANZA MUST RESIGN OFFICE.

Hostilities Cease Pending the Negotiations of Leaders.

Calderon Declared Only Man Who Can Bring Peace.

Pressure Being Brought to Have Carranza Resign.

(BY A. P. MORTIMER.)
EL PASO (Tex.) Sept. 28.—The beginning of actual hostilities between the rival factions of the divided Congress, Carranza's army awaited tonight.

Calderon, Carranza's answer to Gen. Villa, who has demanded that he resign in favor of Fernando Iglesias Calderon as first chief. So far as could be learned here, however, there has been established no actual armistice, and both Carranza's and Villa's forces continue to prepare for battle.

The condition of the railroads and other communications between Chihuahua City, Carranza's headquarters, and Mexico City probably will delay the negotiations between the northern leader's spokesmen and Alvaro Obregon and other Carranza representatives who are expected to confer at Aguascalientes. The meeting cannot take place for several days, it was estimated.

From all sides today came reports of strong pressure, aside from Villa's demand, which is being brought to bear on Carranza that he resign as first chief of the revolutionary party. Jose Santos Chocoma, a Peruvian poet and publicist, who for several months has been traveling with both Carranza and Villa, today telegraphed the former that as a friend of the revolution he deemed it highly necessary that he resign at once.

Partisans of Calderon sprang up from all quarters and representatives of the old Federal or "Cientifico" party declared that his installation as provisional President would be the best means of assuring at least temporary peace.

J. L. Canova, who has been acting as investigator for the Washington State Department of Agriculture, returned from the south. George C. Carothers, acting in similar capacity, remained at Villa's headquarters in Chihuahua. Although last week by Carranza's troops, the Carranza and Villa elements as represented in Sonora continued their actual warfare in the second battle since the official declaration of peace in Mexico.

Gen. Juan Cabral, named as military commander of Sonora, returned here declaring that he has no connection with either side and that he will enter private life, for the time being, in the United States.

OIL FIRE NEAR TAMPIOCO.

An Area of About Eleven Acres is Burned Over Surrounding One of the Largest Wells in the World.

(BY A. P. MORTIMER.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—An area approximately eleven acres in extent, surrounding El Aguila, one of the largest oil wells in the world, located in Tampico, Mex., district, is a mass of smoke and flames, according to the officers of the steamship Esperanza, which reached here today from Mexican ports.

The well was capped shortly after the capture of Tampico by the Constitutionalists, and the fire was caused by the well being set on fire by the revolutionaries. The fire is now burning furiously, and the flames are seen for miles around.

The officers of the Esperanza said that the light by night resembles the glare from a great city and during the day the smoke clouds look like an approaching storm. Several weeks ago field artillery was brought up from Tampico and an effort made to shoot the cap off the well, in the hope that the pressure would be relieved, but the effort was unsuccessful.

"STAY A WHILE," SAYS ZAPATA.

(BY A. P. MORTIMER.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Gen. Funston reported today that Zapata had protested to him against the evacuation of Vera Cruz and delivery of the city to Carranza forces.

De la Barra Resigns.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
PARIS, Sept. 28.—Francisco de la Barra, the Mexican Minister to France, telegraphed his resignation to the Constitutional government of Mexico several days ago, but up to the present time he has received no reply. In the meantime he continues to devote himself to the interests of Mexico.

Vera Cruz Agitated.

(BY A. P. MORTIMER.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Citizens of Vera Cruz were praised by the State Department today in an official statement commending their "exemplary conduct" during the American occupation.

HAIR DRESSING
Ladies' Hairdressing in London and Paris By Constance.

When I was in Europe this year I found both cities so thickly dotted with hairdressing parlors and hair goods stores that I wondered if the women ever had time for anything but care for the hair. Personally I was chiefly interested in finding a really good shampoo and found that they employed in addition to their usual some item made for shampooing only, and I was happily surprised when several inquiries each brought the suggestion that our own American made canthrox shampoo is best. They like it because in addition to being perfectly safe and making the hair free from all dandruff, excess oil and dust, it is so simple to get canthrox from any hairdresser that it dissolves a tenacious film of oil and water, making you will then have a preparation that makes the hair not only entirely clean, but so fluffy that it appears very heavy. Canthrox stimulates the scalp to healthy action, making the hair feel good, and the hair look good.

ALL MAY DANCE.

Old and New Steps will Blend at Riley's Dance Hall at "Hantown" Benefit Show.

Lon McCoy, who will be in charge of Riley's dance hall at the Native Sons' and Native Daughters' Hantown show, to be held all of next week at the Shrine Auditorium, proposes to give the old folks a chance to enjoy themselves in terpsichorean revels, and to this end has instructed his chief d'orchestra to lay hands on all the old-time Virginia reels, mazurkas, schottisches, lancers, quadrilles and waltzes of the "hop" variety that he can find.

The proprietor of the Hantown Riley's dance hall does not propose to bar the young man and his best girl, whose knowledge of the dance is confined to the one-step, the hesitation waltz and the two-step, so these popular dances will be plentiful. Yet he does not want the older folk, who know nothing of the dances of the period, to think they won't have a chance to have a rip-roaring time at the Hantown dance festival.

When the old-time quadrille is danced Lon McCoy will attend to the "calling off" himself. The McCoy voice will resoundingly chant: "Swing your partner on your left," "right hand to your partner and all promenade," "change of hands and two little bunches," "balance all," "balance to the left and swing your partner," and all of the various other directions without which a quadrille would not be a quadrille at all.

There will be no striving after a modern effect either in the decorations or the music in Riley's dance hall. Everything will be modeled after the original Hantown dance hall and visitors to the Hantown dance next week will be permitted on the dance floor even if they wear hob-nailed boots or "chaps," and "boiled shirts" are not absolutely necessary to a proper observance of the sartorial schedule.

This Riley's dance hall is sure to be one of the striking features of next week's Hantown show.

Among the guests at the Angeles are P. A. Nerve, an officer of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, San Francisco; William Ticker, lumber dealer of Little Rock, and Edmond Randolph, dry goods dealer, and Mrs. Randolph of New York.

A. W. Shattuck, dry goods dealer of Chicago, is at the Alexandria and also F. S. Holt, broker of New York, and A. T. Kingsbury, manufacturer of Akron, O.

Mr. Walter J. Ballard, the well-known Los Angeles author and wizard with statistics, has been seriously ill at his home on Burlington avenue, but is now recovering and will soon be out again.

GUIDES EUROPE THROUGH CANAL

First Continental Vessel to Arrive Here Today.

Also the Last to Sail from Beliequered Antwerp.

Her Cargo All but Went to Stop German Shells.

An embassy from the seat of war with an appeal for peace will arrive here today. It is the British steamer Ostend, whose danger-combated passage down the River Scheldt from Antwerp with a $1,000,000 cargo and to this port by way of the Panama Canal means the tracing of a new trade lane, one that draws this city 1000 miles nearer Europe than ever before. It is the first European vessel to make the canal passage.

"I am not a pessimist," said A. Carpenter, the charterer of the boat, yesterday, "but, to be frank, I never expected to see the Ostend again after I got word that she had left Antwerp."

Mr. Carpenter is a Belgian, long resident in San Francisco. His chartering of the Ostend, some time before the outbreak of the European conflict, was a part of a plan to inaugurate regular shipping service between Antwerp and San Francisco, by way of Norfolk, Va., and this city.

He has been here the past week, anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Ostend. His last word of it was by government cable from Colon as the boat was entering the canal September 15.

Originally loaded with 4500 tons of general cargo—1000 tons for this city—the Ostend left 250 tons of French preserves on the wharves at Antwerp in the hands of its officers to get away before the Scheldt was closed to navigation.

As a matter of fact, these preserves and some liquors and rails were confiscated by the Belgian government as contraband of war, but representatives of the Ostend and the Ostend again would mean money for the allies, led to the release of all but the preserves.

"They would have been released," said Mr. Carpenter yesterday, "but as the Scheldt was being mined it was thought best to get under way without waiting time. Even as it was I am informed that the Ostend was the last vessel to pass down the Scheldt, and that it picked its way through fields of mines that might have torpedoed any but the captain of the Ostend."

Sailing from Antwerp August 12, the Ostend put into Cardiff, some days later to coal. It was delayed there a considerable time, according Warren Gillen, 60 years old, a retired banker, was struck by a street car and knocked unconscious at Fifth and Spring streets yesterday afternoon. Rushed to the Receiving Hospital in the automobile of a friend, Spencer Thorpe, it was found that his injuries consisted of a broken thumb, an abrasion of the forehead and contusion of the right upper cheek.

Mr. Gillen was unable to explain the cause of the accident. The railway officials say he walked from behind one car on the tracks before being struck by another. He was called to notice an approaching car.

Mr. Gillen was president of the Broadway Bank and Trust Company here for Norfolk, Va., and this city.

He was married and has three children. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

THOUSAND COME SEEKING HOMES.

Heavy Arrivals During the Early Hours Yesterday.

High Tide of Railroad Still Ahead, Is Assertion of Traffic Heads—Special Train Service to Handle the Overload Is Plan of the Union Pacific.

The dawn yesterday witnesses the debouching of nearly 1000 colonists at the railroad gates to the city. With fifteen additional tourist car reservations yesterday reported by the railroad companies, the signs indicate that the original estimate of 10,000 settlers for the season was conservative, to say the least.

"An eleven-hour rush is the way it looks to me," remarked Assistant General Passenger Agent Held of the Santa Fe. "About twenty of the thirty-nine special car parties slated for movement over our road are to move along at the end of the season."

The arrivals yesterday included nine special car parties over the Santa Fe, seven over the Salt Lake, and three over the Southern Pacific, bringing in a total of 600 persons. It is estimated that 250 came in through the day in the early morning hours. The rest came in by train in the afternoon and evening.

The colonist rush is especially apparent around the railroad baggage rooms, where mountains of luggage are piled up, awaiting claimants. These claimants in many cases checked their baggage through and are waiting for the train to arrive.

A fact which shows that the high tide of the season is still ahead was the announcement yesterday by the Union Pacific that it will run special trains out of Omaha to the city, beginning October 1.

BLOW AIMED AT COTTON TRADE.

Southern Pacific Purposes Advance of Rates.

While War Conditions Make the Market Wabble.

Important Conference Upon Situation Today.

With the cotton market undermined by war condition and a campaign under way to provide the small grower with enough money for living expenses, the Southern Pacific has filed an application with the State Railroad Commission for permission to raise cotton rates upward. A copy of the application was received yesterday at the commission's branch office here.

"Rates as now published," says the application, "are considered entirely too low for the service performed."

Back of the proposal, according to General Freight Agent Stubbs of the Southern Pacific, is the necessity of taking cognizance of the advent of the compressor into the Imperial Valley and also of creating a differential between the Los Angeles and San Francisco rates, which will assure the railroad the long haul in competition with water forms of transport.

The prayer of the Southern Pacific is for the sanctioning of a rate on compressed cotton from Calexico and Glamis to this city at the rate of 40 cents and to San Francisco of 55 cents, and an advance of the rate on uncompressed cotton to the city and its ports from 40 to 50 cents. This would provide a 15-cent differential between the Los Angeles and San Francisco rates, which will assure the railroad the long haul in competition with water forms of transport.

The lowness of the compressed rate in comparison with the uncompressed rate is explained by the fact that compressing makes for weight and the revenue-creating power of the cotton is thereby increased.

COTTON CONFERENCE TODAY.

Plans to provide a market for Imperial Valley cotton will be discussed today at a meeting of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce with representatives of the growers and financial and other interests at the Chamber of Commerce.

The outbreak of the European war and the consequent closing of the great English mills, the bottom dropped out of the cotton market. As a result the growers of the Imperial and Palo Verde Valleys find themselves with much the largest crop of cotton on record on which they have no sale and on which they can borrow little or no money, due, in part, to the war conditions in the banking world. The purpose of the meeting, which is scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock a.m., is to make it possible for the growers to realize sufficient money on their cotton to tide them over to the time when they will be able to market the staple at normal prices.

TO EL PASO HEAVENWARD.

Man Who Cheated Harriman to Have Forgiving Companion Only that Far.

Charles F. Crites, No. 519 East Eighth street, Hutchinson, Kan., intends to go to heaven and has invited General Passenger Agent Battura of the Southern Pacific to go along. Unfortunately, the invitation, which was received yesterday at Mr. Battura's office, has a string to it.

In the days of his youth, Mr. Crites says he was lured by the fallen one into "tapping" the Harriman system for 2156 miles of "blind baggage" and other forms of free, but forbidden travel—for the railroads. As his troubled conscience is supplemented by an empty pocket, Mr. Crites proposes that Mr. Battura constitute himself absolver for the Harriman system in toto and forgive him all.

But alas—and Mr. Battura is more worried about it than any one else—the Harriman system is no more. It has been unscrambled by a heartless government and such absolution as Mr. Battura might offer would only reach to El Paso.

LEADS AGAIN WITH BARLEY.

California Crop Value Over Twenty Millions.

Inflated Prices Decline to Normal Point.

Exportation Greater than in Past Years.

With its phenomenal crop of over 44,000,000 bushels of barley, California leads all other barley-producing States of the Union for the year 1914, according to W. E. Howard, president of the Los Angeles Grain Exchange.

This crop, based on the selling price of 44 cents per bushel on September 1, has a value to the State of over $20,000,000. Although the present 1,000,000 acres planted to barley shows a considerable decrease over preceding years, the 1914 yield of 44,000,000 bushels exceeds the average of the last five years of only 37,000,000 bushels owing to an extremely heavy yield per acre, due to heavy rains last winter.

Discussing the influence of the European war upon this year's grain crop in the United States, Mr. Howard declared the same thing happened to grain in this country immediately following the announcement of war that occurred to most other crops. Crows of speculators eager to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by such an important event greatly inflated prices, expecting that warring Europe would have to buy American products at whatever prices were asked.

But the demoralized condition of commerce at once ensuing and the failure of American producers to figure on the large amounts of grain held in hand by each of the contending powers resulted in a sharp and immediate fall of prices, with the result that speculators were forced to sell at depreciating prices. The opinion of the farmers that the war was among farmers that war justified them in hoarding their crops at fabulous prices undoubtedly has been entirely dispelled.

TWO GOOD BUTS.

It is Mr. Howard's firm belief, based on a thorough knowledge of market conditions here and abroad, that the present price of barley will decline no further and that both barley and wheat are conservative buys with a normal market in sight.

However, his view of the foreign situation is that consumption of grain by the belligerent countries will be lessened for the time being in proportion.

Postmaster Brown yesterday received an official notification from First Assistant Postmaster-General Rogers to the effect that the action contemplated by the Postoffice Department for the reduction of the number of clerks employed by twenty, until that date that the public business demands the present number of clerks. If such evidence is not furnished it follows that the cut will be made.

COL. SPRUANCE PASSES AWAY IN THE EAST.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA lost a leading figure in the fruit world in the death yesterday at Chicago of Col. Louis Jefferson Spruance, formerly of this city. He was also among the most prominent figures in the social and fraternal life of the Southland. Death was due to a nervous breakdown, following several years' very active participation in commercial pursuits. He was 45 years of age.

According to word received last night funeral services will probably be conducted at the home of his parents in Chicago. Besides these he leaves a widow, Mrs. L. J. Spruance, of Pasadena, and a son, L. J. Spruance, Jr., 8 years of age, and a married sister in Chicago.

Col. Spruance was the president of the Spruance Fruit Company, one of the largest factors in the citrus business in the United States. His connection with the Southern California Fruit Exchange. He was also connected with the Stuart Fruit Company and the Fay Fruit Company, being an associate of B. S. Fay for many years, and one of the organizers of the Citrus Union. Besides, he owned several large citrus orchards at Pomona, Covina and other nearby cities.

Fraternally, Col. Spruance was Past Potentate of Al Malakiah Temple, No. 1, and one of the organizers of the Arab Patrol; former vice-president and director, and an early member of the Los Angeles Commandery No. 9, Knights Templar.

Because of his great interest in the welfare of not only the Southern but the city as well, he was made an aide de camp of Gov. Pardee's staff, with the rank of colonel.

His father was formerly a big broker on the Chicago exchange. Before coming to Southern California thirteen years ago, Col. Spruance made himself a prominent business man of Kansas City. Coming here, he settled first at Covina, then Pomona, and a member of the Chamber of Commerce in this city on Oxford boulevard, between Sixth and Wilshire.

He became interested in the fruit business, taking the lead in all constructive measures.

Two years ago he suffered a nervous breakdown, but soon regained his health. Again in April he became worse and declined to leave at once his old home in Chicago.

WOULD COLLECT FROM COLLECTOR FOR WIFE.

REGULAR monthly calls to collect rent, made by B. A. Young, resulted in complications with A. C. Bruce, one of his tenants. Mr. Bruce, who is a jeweler at No. 623 South Hill street, charges Mr. Young with having alienated the affections of Mrs. Bruce and asks for $50,000 damages in a suit filed yesterday.

The Bruces have been separated several months and the husband said yesterday that he does not know his wife's whereabouts. The house owned by Mrs. Young and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, where the trouble started, is at No. 816 West Eleventh street.

Mr. Bruce says that Mr. Young expressed a preference for calling at the house for the rent, rather than at the former's place of business and that, accordingly, the checks were left with Mrs. Bruce to be delivered to the property owner.

He charged that Mr. Bruce in his petition that Mr. Young "enacted in a systematic, persistent, unjust and deceitful attempt" to win the affections of Mrs. Bruce and that he influenced her with gifts of money, clothing and a motor car. Attorney GETTING OUT PARTY'S VOTE.

District Workers Report
G.O.P. in Fine Shape.

Los Angeles Battle Ground of Coming Election.

Borah and Others to Stump
State in Campaign.

Republican workers in every Assembly district in the county were present last night at a meeting at county headquarters in the I. W. Hellman building. The Organization Committee, headed by Fred J. Sprink, met with the district chairman and heard reports from every part of Los Angeles county.

This is to be the real battle ground of California at the coming election, according to politicians of all parties, and the Republican organization, under the leadership of County Chairman Bowen, is lending every effort to swing it into the Republican column for Capt. Frederick and the Republican ticket.

From every Assembly district came reports that the organization in first condition and that the sentiment of a majority of the people is turning to the Republican party. In Capt. Frederick's home county, where his record as District Attorney is best known, the Republican vote will be augmented by a tremendous vote from other parties, say the party workers.

A thorough canvass of the county is being made and the indications are that the Republicans will poll 80 per cent. of their vote at the coming election. During the progress of the precinct work it has been ascertained that a large majority of the "not stated" vote will go to the Republican ticket.

GET OUT THE VOTE.

The supreme effort of the Republican organization now will be to get out the vote on November 3. It was pointed out last night that the preponderance of sentiment being in favor of a return of the Republican party to power in the State and nation, it only remains for the party workers to see that every Republican vote is cast on election day.

County Chairman Bowen issued another urgent call to all nonregistered Republicans to register before October 3, the final day of registration.

Party workers report a growing sentiment against the "Progressive" party, and a canvass of registered Republicans fails to show any appreciable number who do not intend to support the entire ticket.

BORAH TO CAMPAIGN.

Word was received at county headquarters yesterday that William E. Borah, United States Senator from Idaho, will come to California to campaign for the Republican ticket within the next month, according to advices received yesterday from Charles D. Hillis of the Republican National Committee. Hillis stated that Senator Borah will make three or more speeches in the State, subject to the wishes of the State Central Committee. The receipt of information of Borah's coming brought enthusiasm to the members of the Executive Committee yesterday at Republican headquarters.

That Senator A. E. Borah, Congressman Charles F. Curry and other noted orators of State-wide fame will go on the stump for the Republicans, was reported by George Filmer, chairman of the speakers' bureau at San Francisco. According to Filmer, more than a score of prominent men and women have volunteered to take the field, and county committees are being consulted in the arrangement of itineraries as thoroughly to get the State.

Political Poisoners.

W. J. Ford, chief Deputy District Attorney, has completed plans for holding a series of night meetings all over the county in the interest of his selection as District Attorney. Mr. Ford finds his days filled with public work, but will talk to thousands before the campaign is far spent, during the evenings.

The "Progressive" County Committee has opened headquarters on Hill street, where it is using a very good American flag for an awning.

The women are active in organization work. Miss Adeline Stanton is holding meetings on Wednesday night at her home, No. 425 West Third street, for all voters in her precinct, No. 417. The work is a part of the activities of the Women's Republican League. In each precinct in the city similar meetings are being held.

The Nathaniel P. Conroy Independent Committee, ex-Judge Bordwell, chairman; Edward F. Wehrle, secretary; J. J. Peterson, treasurer, have opened headquarters at 740 Merchants National Bank building, Sixth and Spring streets, to aid in the election of Judge Conroy as Justice of the Second District Court of Appeal.

PTOMATINE POISONING.

Whole Family Stricken after Eating Meat and one Person Nearly Dies from the Effects.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

ANAHEIM, Sept. 28.—The lives of four persons were endangered and that of one is despaired of from ptomaine poisoning in the family of Walter H. Dakins on South Olive street. Death's temperature rose at one time to 105 and the attending physician for a time feared for his life. It is thought that the family was poisoned at supper Friday evening by eating a piece of steak.

At 2 o'clock Saturday morning the Mrs. Dakins, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Dakins and their two children, aged 1 and 2 years, respectively, were taken with cramps. At 5:30 o'clock a doctor pronounced it ptomaine poisoning. While all are now out of danger, members of the family are still very ill. It is thought they will be fully recovered by the end of the week.

Virulence of the Plague.

[Indianapolis News.] In the year 1902 the Russian city of Odessa was visited by bubonic plague. This raged for five months and killed 3000 people. Its origin was traced to an Austrian flag which was hoisted over the grave of an Austrian seaman who had died at sea and been buried in the cemetery. After the funeral the flag was carried in turn by two seamen who afterward entered various public houses, having the flag down as they stopped. Shortly afterward and both these men fell ill and died, and they were taken ill in all the houses they had entered.

WOMEN'S WORK. WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY AGNES THURNAU.

We live in an age dominated by masculine idealism. The body politic is swayed by masculine forces; governments are today almost entirely the result of masculine conception and organization. In fact we have a man-made civilization in a world which is in its great essentials a woman's world. And the civilization which man has made is in a great many ways a failure, because he has tried to do the work alone. He has assumed that when the Great Law-giver threw a handful of star dust like thistle down into space and the planet was formed, the whole operation was primarily to give him an opportunity to show his great courage, his great strength, his great genius in an environment of matter. I think maybe he is right in this assumption, but it does not go far enough. It ought to include woman. If man had not tried so long to work out the destiny of the human race alone, the civilization which he has built would not have failed in its greatest essential, that of making the human race happy. The work of woman, as it relates to the development of the race, is just as essential in working out the world-experiences of this humanity as that of man. But man lost sight of the fact that when this planet was peopled with a humanity manifesting the two genders in the two sexes, it was that they might in equality, equity and co-operation work together along the separate and distinct lines necessary for the development of the courage, strength and genius of both sexes. And most of the civilizations which man, forgetting the little detail he built, have been rather messy affairs. Quite unsatisfactory; like a cake without sugar, a circus without the brass band. They have failed to make people happy, and that is a little point which no civilization builder can afford to disregard if he wants to go down in history as a perfect success.

The time has come when man realizes this, whether he says it or not. And he is permitting woman to begin her belated task. Now if she wants to convince man that she is the sensible creature she claims to be she will assume that "Never-mind-yesterday-what-did-you-do" attitude and instead of bemoaning lost time will get busy and make it up. Besides we haven't any infallible record that she always wanted to put her shoulder to the wheel. I believe there have been lots of times in the last few centuries when she rather felt she had a good thing of it and enjoyed leaning idly back on her cushions in the aft end of the launch and letting man steer the craft.

But she is now fully aware that she has work to do, and she is doing it. That is the all important thing. And already the world is looking forward to the birth of its finest civilization.

All of women's activities are keyed to the desire for human happiness; the promotion of human welfare. And whether these activities are in the club, the church, the schoolroom, at the home, or in the market place of the world, as long as woman holds herself in touch with the fine spiritual forces which operate in human life, she will be successful in her intention, and nothing will prevail against her.

Y.W.C.A. Cooking School.

Those of us who have practiced living on fried eggs and dog biscuit only, because the superb art of cooking was a mystery to us, need not continue longer remaining in ignorance of the delights of the kitchen. The Y.W.C.A. has a full-fledged, thirty-day, ably-directed, food-cooking school aiming to elevate cooking to its proper place as a science and art. The course combines practical with theoretical work. Food products of this and other countries are discussed; the classification of foods, their nutritive value, food experiments and investigations; also the selection of supplies with reference to economy and utility.

The course in household management aims to develop housekeeping efficiency, and theoretical and practical work will be done by students in a furnished apartment.

The cooking school, just opened, will run throughout the year.

The Psychopathic Parole Society.

Mrs. H. C. Stockwell in her report of the Psychopathic Society to the Friday Morning Club says: "The society has been working for two and a half years with the lunacy court and State Hospital in caring for the mentally sick women who come before the court. Many who are committed to the asylum are but victims of unfortunate circumstances often underworked and subject to mental conditions which can be cured by a few weeks' rest and care. The first year we took care of 122; this last year paroled from the commission 134 and twenty-six from the State Hospital at Patton, making a total of 163 cared for. Fifty-six of these women went to Resthaven, the home maintained by the Friday Morning Club for mentally sick women. The others were placed and looked after by the parole officers of the society who seek to keep in touch with them, know their condition and what improvement they make. This work greatly appeals to the justice of the lunacy court as it makes possible some other way of caring for these mentally sick women besides sending them to the State Hospital."

To Simplify the Settlement of an Estate

THE SETTLEMENT OF YOUR ESTATE can be simplified at the very outset by having your Will carefully drawn by one experienced in this branch of the Law. If disposed of by a properly drawn Will, your Estate will be handled the way you wish—not as the Law presumes you wished.

Appoint a responsible and experienced Executor—this is paramount.

The Trust Department of this Bank, authorized by the State to act as Executor under Wills and in many other Trust capacities, will advise you how to draw your Will in strict conformity with the Law, and can then administer your Estate in the way you intend. We invite you to consult our Trust Officers at any time in this important matter.

At this banquet the Imperial Valley Bankers' Association was formed, with the following officers: L. J. Thomas of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Imperial, president; B. F. Fuller of the El Centro National Bank, vice-president; R. G. Webster of the First National Bank of Holtville, secretary; Don Leonard of the First National Bank of Calexico, treasurer.

The chief object of this association is to benefit the valley by uniting the banks so that they can act quickly in cases of emergency and in all matters pertaining to the general welfare of the valley towns.

Finally Fixed.

[Case and Comment.] A well-known judge often relieved his judicial wisdom with a touch of humor. One day, during the trial of a case, Mr. Gunn was a witness in the box, and as he hesitated a good deal and seemed unwilling, after much persistent questioning, to tell what he knew, the judge said to him: "Come, Mr. Gunn, don't hang fire." After the examination had closed the bar was convulsed by the judge adding: "Mr. Gunn, you can go off; you are discharged."

Rembrandt Club, Claremont.

The Rembrandt Club of Pomona College, Claremont, will devote the coming year to the study of Japanese art. Temple architecture in Japan, sculpture, painting, gardening and the development of the Japanese landscape in painting will be subjects of special study.

Mrs. Leslie's Legacy.

The income from $1,800,000 will come in right handy in many parts of the country where women suffrage workers are handicapped for lack of funds. Mrs. Frank Leslie, in leaving her fortune to promote the interests of women, has erected a lasting monument of love for herself in the heart of every woman who has her eyes turned toward the dawn of a better day for humanity, whether that woman stands over the cooking stove with a baby on her hip, getting her man's supper, or whether she is preaching to thousands from the lecture platform. We salute you, Mrs. Frank Leslie, and may you take your place out there among the stars, where God's gentlemen and gentlemen rest when the day is done.

Has Fine Action in the Blood

Does Real Work in Cleaning Body of Impurities.

It is to the skin that blood impurities are driven by Nature. And it is in the skin that S. S. S. the famous blood purifier, has its most pronounced influence. For it is here that you see the results. S. S. S. is none the less effective in the joints, glands and mucous surfaces in driving out rheumatism, overcoming boils and ridding the system of catarrh.

The purely vegetable ingredients in S. S. S. are naturally assimilated but they enter the blood as an active medicine and are not destroyed or converted while at work. It is this peculiar feature of S. S. S. that makes it so effective. It acts into action all the forces of the body, arouses digestive secretions, stimulates the blood circulation to destroy disease breeding germs.

Upon entering the blood S. S. S. is carried throughout your body in about three minutes. And in a brief time it has any blood trouble under control that it no longer can multiply. Gradually new flesh is formed in all broken-down tissues and the skin takes on the ruddy glow of health. Be sure and get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any druggist, but be sure to get the genuine.

Around the bottle is an illustrated circular that tells you how to obtain special free advice in quickly overcoming serious blood disorders. S. S. S. is prepared only by The Swift Specific Co., 54 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

DAZZLING TROTTER ETAWAH SMASHES RECORDS.

RECORDS DROP AT COLUMBUS.

Ten Heats Trotted at a Low Average.

Etawah, Geer's Trotter, the Sensation.

Four-year-old Takes C. of C. Feature.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
COLUMBUS (O.) Sept. 28.—From ten heats on this afternoon's Columbus Grand Circuit racing programme, a time average of 2:04 4-100 was secured for a reduction of the world's record made on the same track last Tuesday, when thirteen heats were trotted and paced in an average of 2:05 1-5.

THE START.
Etawah, the Geers trotter, was the sensational performer. In winning the Chamber of Commerce stake, he made a world's record three-heat trotting mark, regardless of sex or age. The total, 6:13 1-5, is just two seconds below that made by Hamburg Belle at Hartford in the Charter Oak stake race in 1908.

Of the three heats, the third was the fastest. Omar contended even led until the previous miles, forcing the 4-year-old to take a record of 2:03 3-4, which is a new record for trotters of this age. Etawah earlier this year did an exhibition mile in 2:03 3-4. His race record was 2:04 1-2 made here last Tuesday in the fastest fourth heat ever trotted in a race.

A TROPHY.
To Driver Geers the Columbus Chamber of Commerce presented a silver trophy cup.

Our Colonel, second choice to Far Richmond, won the Board of Trade stake in straight heats. He acquired a new record in 2:02 1-2 in the first heat. In the free-for-all pace betwixt Frank Bogash, Jr., was barred. He won as he pleased. Carl, Jr., was favored over Walter Cochato for the place and obtained it after Walter Cox became his driver.

Baron Marquis was the favorite for the sixth heat of the 2:08 pace, which came over from Saturday. He led until the last turn, when Vera, rushing the Murphy 3-year-old, broke, came on and won easily.

CARDS ADOPT OLD TACTICS.

Line Bucking Valuable When Near Score.

Charley Austin has a Queer Wiggle.

Phil Patterson Learns Use of Knees.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 27.—A new idea seems to have entered the ranks of the Cardinal Rugby.

That idea is originally, plain and simple. "Do not only copy the All-Blacks, but also add that is possible to the game," seems to be their slogan.

HERETOFORE. Heretofore the sole purpose of most northern teams seems to have been to pattern their style of play on that of the visitors from New Zealand. That has kept and is keeping most Rugby fans, but the experts in the Cardinal ranks feel, as is shown by their actions, that they can now afford to spend some thought and time on new methods of play.

The result of this is going to be that those who witness the big game on November 14 will see a vastly more complex game than heretofore. The method not only of the team, but also of the individual mode of attack, is much more inclusive.

TO LEARN. In the past players have been taught to get rid of those "old-game" ideas and pick up Rugby. That was right and necessary to the acquisition of the new game principles. But American football has developed things unknown to the Rugby game and many of these can be introduced into the latter with much gain to it. Progress is not always change to a new set of ideas, but is often merely the addition of more ideas.

Some of the Cardinal players are proving that it is good policy to hold onto the ball under some conditions, where heretofore it was deemed bad Rugby. Good Rugby says advance the ball as far as possible and then pass, but under few conditions is it excusable to be caught with the ball.

AUSTIN DOES IT. Charley Austin is increasing the number of those conditions. He doesn't always pass now when tackled. He merely "wiggles" and gets away. They have to tie him up to down him. This "wiggle" is one of his old prep-school tricks. This, with his ability to dodge and his speed, make it almost impossible to stop him.

Many a try has been lost by passing just before the goal was reached, when some tactics of the old game might have saved the score. Of course it would be very poor Rugby to buck the line under most conditions, but that play can be used under some conditions and a little discrimination will tell when.

AN INVENTOR. Phil Patterson, at second five, yesterday demonstrated this. Twice he tore through for a try with his knees up in the air in a manner of running familiar to all American football players and one making it almost impossible to tackle a man.

First he used it when within ten yards of the goal and it took him over. Then he tried it when under ordinary conditions there could be little excuse for it—that is, when he was fifty yards from the line. But it worked and that is the test of any play. One thing Rugby players usually lack is ability to tackle, but if a few of the players adopt this mode of running tackling will be necessary to be perfected.

ADD SOMETHING. If many of the best old-game methods are adopted by the new game it promises to develop into the most progressive and best game played on the gridiron and maybe Americans can even add something that the originators of the Rugby game across the waters will recognize.

The freshman backfield is laid up with injuries, only Charlie Neuner of Los Angeles, at full, and "Wobblers" Stafford, at first five, being left. In yesterday's game against Lowell High School the forward division was forced to play practically the whole game. The backfield proved to be a regular eleven against the attack of opposing backs, and it was only by doing the seemingly impossible that the doctored little full-back succeeded in saving scores against his team.

Once he smothered the attack of three opponents when the field was clear, but for him, his showing throughout the present season has given rise to much "various talk." He is without doubt the best under study that Andrews, varsity full, has in the Cardinal ranks.

CLIFFDWELLERS HAVE INJURIES.

JAMES AND WIEMAN ARE HURT BUT CLIFF BOWES IS IN GAME.

Gloom and Joy took turns dancing on the faces of the Cliffdwellers yesterday. Cliff Bowes, the half-back, returned to L. A. and will be eligible for the fifteen. But James and Wieman were temporarily laid on the shelf. "Pat" James got an ugly cut across the face. Three stitches were taken in it. Two, perhaps three, weeks, he will be out.

WISCONSIN TO BAR ROWING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] MADISON (Wis.) Sept. 28.—Participation in intercollegiate rowing contests by University of Wisconsin crew was ordered discontinued today by the faculty as the result of an investigation by the medical faculty showing that a large number of crew candidates had developed hypertrophied hearts. Twenty-eight of fifty-six freshmen and twenty of twenty-three "W" men showed this condition.

HANK O'DAY ABOUT TO GO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—Numerous reports have been given out in the last three months that Hank O'Day is to be deposed as manager of the Chicago Cubs.

This was confirmed here today by Johnny Evers, captain of the Braves.

Evers said he was asked only a short time ago to pick O'Day's successor. He was requested to do this by the secretary of Charles Taft, who is said to own the controlling interest of the club. Evers declared he refused to do this for Taft, as he had troubles enough of his own.

Roger Bresnahan and Tommy Leach are the players Evers was asked to choose between. This was when the Braves played in Cincinnati.

will parade up and down the sidelines.

"Tad" Wieman wrenched at ankle and will be out for a couple of weeks. It looks as if "Tad" were traveling in the footsteps of his brothers, Drury and Jack. Those famous two always had bad ankles or wrenched knees. They were wrenched in spite of them. "Tad" promises to be a wonder, likewise.

George E. Hardy of Marlboro, Mass., intends to try to swim the English Channel on August 1, 1915. He will begin training on January 1 next.

HERZOG GETS BOUNCED OUT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—C. L. Herzog, manager of the Cincinnati Nationals, was indefinitely suspended today by President Tener "because of an insulting telegram" received at the executive office of the league in New York from the Cincinnati manager. Herzog was suspended for three days as a result of an altercation with an umpire in Boston, when it was said he used unbecomingly language. This suspension, it is alleged, caused him to send the telegram to Secretary Heydler. Gov. Tener, who was in this city tonight, stated that Herzog will remain under suspension until he has made a suitable apology.

Woman Driving Car Relates

Motor Busses are Kept Off
Millionaires' Row.

PASADENA, Sept. 28.—As the result of an automobile accident at Colorado street and Euclid avenue, Mrs. E. B. Prentiss, 84 years old, of No. 60 South Los Robles avenue, may lose her life. She was struck by a car driven by Mrs. O. F. Lindman of No. 328 Markham street. In the car with Mrs. Lindman were Mr. Lindman, their son and Mrs. Lindman's mother.

According to Mrs. Lindman, she was crossing Colorado street at Euclid avenue, driving her car slowly, waiting for a street car to pass. She saw Mrs. Prentiss, who was crossing the street, and driving so as to pass behind her, touched the bulb to warn her.

The old lady, she said, was walking slowly and was looking down all the time, not noticing where she was going.

STARTLED BY HONK.

The "honk" of the horn startled her and becoming confused she ran right into the moving car and was knocked down and her hip was severely injured. There may be internal injuries.

The Lindmans carried her into the Battle Creek Sanitarium on Euclid avenue and called a physician.

She was later taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Stephens, on Holliston avenue. Though 84 years old Mrs. Prentiss is said to have been very active and went about alone whenever she chose, though her sister was always uneasy for fear just such an accident might happen.

Mrs. Prentiss lives alone and is said to have no other relative here except her sister. Last night she was said to be suffering intensely.

POSTMASTER
KILLS A MAN.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
EL CENTRO, Sept. 28.—William Bailey, postmaster at Alberta Rockwood station, eight miles northwest of here, today shot and killed Thomas Fitzgerald, a former employee, during an altercation in Bailey's store. Bailey claims that he shot in self-defense when Fitzgerald attacked him with a scale weight. The dead man was a Spanish-American War veteran.

DOUBLE-DECKERS BARRED.

The big double-decked motor busses, which have been plying the streets of Pasadena since August 25, will not be allowed to operate on South Orange Grove avenue. This was practically determined yesterday at a meeting of the City Commission after the filing of a petition by Dr. Wendell D. Morse, in which nearly 10,000 feet frontage out of 14,000 feet was represented.

City Attorney Mungler is preparing an ordinance which will probably be introduced at the commission meeting this morning.

Letters protesting against allowing these motor busses to run in front of three miles of millionaires' homes were read from John S. Craven, A. H. Brady, Mrs. Montgomery Ward, the Buchses and others.

Dr. Morse addressed the commission on the subject at the special session yesterday afternoon.

STORMS SCARE TUNA.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Sept. 28.—The tuna pack this year will average about 20 per cent. less than early estimates, according to local cannerymen, although it will still be nearly double that of last year. Nearly all of the canneries greatly increased their capacity this season, but on account of scarcity of fish during the past month they have not been running at full tilt.

The equinoctial storms of the past week have cut down the amount of fish to such an extent that the tug Crescent, which has been running to Anacapa Island to relay the fishing boats, has been tied up temporarily. Even with the scarcity of fish, however, the new industry is assuming amazing proportions. It is estimated that the six canneries around the harbor will this season pack about 250,000 cases, valued at $1,250,000, at wholesale prices.

San Bernardino.
KILLS HERSELF BECAUSE WEDDING SECRET LEAKS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 28.—Following the disclosure of her recent marriage to Kingsley Kennedy at San Diego, which she had hoped to keep a secret, Mrs. Mary Ward Randall Kennedy committed suicide in her room in a local hotel by using chloroform. Her body was found this morning. She is the niece of John Ward, a local capitalist.

The tragic ending of the girl's life follows a strange career. She left her first husband, William Randall, because he refused her pleadings for a divorce. Her desire was to be a cow-girl. Her uncle gave her money with which to secure a divorce but whether she did or not, he does not know. He was ignorant of her marriage to Kennedy until he came upon her license in her room.

She and Kennedy came from San Diego here on horseback. Kennedy located in another hotel and thus aided his bride in keeping from her relatives the secret of her wedding. The wife, who was about 22 years of age, registered under her former name, Mary Randall.

Since her stay in the city the young woman had been riding in races at Harlem Springs. She left a note to her uncle saying that she was going on a long journey and that he would never see her again. The young husband, less than a week ago prevented her from ending her life when he snatched a bottle of poison from her hands, she says.

Chamlico.
"COL. BILL CODY" KILLED
IN MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
PASADENA, Sept. 28.—"Col. Bill Cody" met his death in the bushes here yesterday morning at the hands of an assassin. Miss Lucile Ryerson of New York, a beautiful girl scarcely out of her teens, who was also visiting the garden, is accused of the deed. She is prostrated over the rash act. She has not been arrested nor have the Pasadena police been notified of the deed.

When the "colonel" met his untimely end he was enjoying the beauties of the Bush gardens in company with Miss Helen George, a fascinating St. Louis belle. He was happy and could not know that death was lurking so close at hand, and being unprepared he had no chance to escape.

His dead body was taken to Los Angeles early yesterday afternoon and was later cremated at Brock's jewelry store, the ashes being placed in a gold casket, the same one in which he used to sleep—for "Col. Bill Cody" who was killed was a chamlico. He was given to Miss George five years ago at a "Buffalo Bill" circus, by a little girl. During the whole performance the child kept her eyes glued on Miss George and finally, unable to contain herself longer, said: "Lady, you are so very beautiful that I've just got to give you one of my darlinest pets."

Miss George said that she didn't care for pets at all at that time, but took it because it seemed so odd to have a pet of that kind. She named him for Col. Bill Cody because it was at his show that he was given her.

She grew very fond of the strange pet for he was quite affectionate; he taught him a number of cute little tricks and he knew her voice and always made a funny little noise when she would come to her room, which was his way of begging to be taken up and petted a bit. He always liked to lie in the sun in the little gold level box and slept in much of the time. In this casket his ashes will repose, and the lid on which an inscription has been engraved will be sealed with gold.

Miss George kept him tied with a little gold chain. Yesterday he crept from the friendly brown silk collar to nestle in the folds of the rich lace on her bodice.

One glimpse of him, and Miss Ryerson, who had stopped for a casual conversation with Miss George, gave one unearthly scream and dashed poor "Col. Bill" to his death. She thought that he was a deadly reptile and that she was saving the life of Miss George. When she learned her mistake she wept.

WEATHER STATION
IN CITRUS LANDS.

RANCH NEAR ESCONDIDO PICKED FOR OBSERVATION PLANT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
ESCONDIDO, Sept. 28.—Working through the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture, as represented by Ford A. Carpenter, of the Los Angeles station, the Second Chamber of Commerce has secured a weather observing station for the citrus section of the Escondido Valley from which official readings will be telegraphed to the Los Angeles station each morning for six months of the year, beginning on October 1. The readings will be of rainfall, wind and temperature, the prevailing direction of the wind and the usual information embodied in such reports.

Having met half a hundred of the citrus growers, the occasion being an illustrated lecture on weather topics, Carpenter, accompanied by Secretary Heath of the Chamber of Commerce, devoted most of Saturday to a careful examination of sites for the station. The one finally agreed upon being that of the citrus ranch of A. F. Hubbard on the north side of the valley, and which is generally conceded to be an average location, with respect to temperature and other essentials. The instrument here and the service will be installed at once.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Escondido has sent out its first carload of honey, the shipment having been made on Saturday by R. L. Brown to the Los Angeles market. It was the product of apiarists of Bernardino and San Pasqual.

RIVERSIDE ENROLLMENT.

Schools are crowded with Pupils. Mexican Breaks Jail by Digging a Hole in the Wall.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
RIVERSIDE, Sept. 28.—Riverside city schools opened this morning with a total enrollment of 2812, of which 2166 were in the elementary schools and 646 in the high schools. This is a gain of 134 over the enrollment of last year. There are 314 enrolled in the boys' polytechnic high school and 212 in the girls' high school. The enrollment in the latter school being so large that additional seats will have to be placed in the assembly hall to accommodate them.

Jesus Gakaz, a Mexican confined in the City Jail on a short-term sentence, succeeded last night in making his escape after digging a hole 10x16 inches through the brick wall of his cell. He used a piece of pipe in battering out the bricks.

Veteran Falls Dead of Bicycle Wreck Stricken with Heart Trouble. Others News Notes.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SANTA ANA, Sept. 28.—J. R. Wilson, a leader in local G.A.R. circles and for many years a prominent North Bush street resident, was riding a bicycle along Main street today when he was stricken with heart trouble. Passers-by picked him up and were hastening with him to a hospital when he died.

School enrollment today shows an increase of 161 pupils over the first day's enrollment of last year. The total today is 2470 pupils, of whom 653 are in the high school.

R. Dinkler of Anaheim today paid a fine of $50 for driving a rig while he was intoxicated. He was arrested by Officers Ballard and Vestal, who were crowded off the paved road into the sand as they tried to pass Dinkler on their motorcycles. Justice Cox told Dinkler that a second offense would mean six months in jail.

Sixty Santa Ana Elks yesterday attended church at the Episcopal Church at Anaheim, of which Rev. David T. Gillmore, chaplain of the Elks lodge at Santa Ana, is rector. The Elks found their chapel highly pleasing not only over the visit of the Elks, but also over the visit of a stork which arrived at the rectory's home soon after midnight yesterday morning. The stork left an infant son.

Grateful Tenants of Building to Give Worthy Recognition—City Officials Sign Bonds for Outfall Sewer—Bus Drivers Arrested for Overloading Machines.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
LONG BEACH, Sept. 28.—Two women hairdressers, battling flames which threatened the Pacific Electric building for half an hour this morning before any men arrived on the scene are to be given some mark of honor for distinguished bravery by the other tenants of the building. The young women are Miss Mildred Nelson and Miss Adah Harris.

Miss Nelson and Miss Harris arrived at their place of business in the building, which is on Ocean avenue, opposite Pacific Park, at about 6:30 o'clock. They scented the odor of smoke and heard crackling flames on the west side of the building. Rushing to the spot they found clothing left on the floor ablaze, with the floor badly scorched. Without shouting for help the plucky young women secured buckets and poured water on the fire until it was extinguished.

Not until the fire was out and the smoke had attracted the first of the men to the scene did they realize that they should have telephoned to the fire department. The young women were unnerfed the remainder of the day and are being highly praised. It is believed the building caught fire from sparks from a chimney of a restaurant close by.

BONDS SIGNED.

Several scores of local men will be put to work immediately on the big outfall sewer which is to be built here. The Mayor affixed his signature to the $100,000 worth of bonds this afternoon, having placed his name on $80 of the documents.

City Clerk Riley will sign them tomorrow, and City Treasurer Norton will be 125 of these machines. The new regulations regarding the auto busmen will probably be put into effect within five weeks.

OVERRUN BY BUSES.

The plethora of auto bus drivers is bothering the city authorities. There are 125 of these machines now plying within the city, and as they all make Pine and Ocean avenues their terminus, the corner is almost always congested during the busy hours. Many of the auto busmen, jockeying for position, cause themselves trouble.

Four drivers, J. J. Johnson, J. L. Shultz, Harry Drake and William Pease were arrested for overloading their machines, and another driver was haled into court for running close to the street car line.

The new regulations regarding the auto busmen will probably be put into effect within five weeks.

PEPPERED PEDESTRIANS.

Shooting pepper berries at theater patrons with a pea shooter is perhaps great sport, but it brought Verne Broadbent and Merrit Baker to tears in the Police Station this afternoon. The youngsters loaded up on ammunition gathered from the shade trees about their parents' home and armed with their long tin howitzers began their bombardment just as the good folk began to enjoy a picture. The movie show managers finally took to the streets and called the cops.

TO SAVE THE TREES.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
TUSTIN, Sept. 28.—J. S. Rice, S. W. Nau and E. M. Nealley, as a committee of citizens of this place, will appear tomorrow before the County Board of Forestry to protest against cutting some poplar trees on First street and Prospect avenue, as petitioned for by E. R. Maury. The committee wants none of the trees cut until after 1915.

A Million Readers
FOLLOW THE WAR
Without Confusion

"Next in value to a good map is a weekly summary by an expert, which will refresh one's memory of what has taken place and will give some new methods of estimating results.

"The very best of these summaries, in my judgment, may be found in The Literary Digest, a weekly publication issued by Funk & Wagnalls Company of New York, and which may be had for ten cents a copy.

"This paper ordinarily gives a review of the most noteworthy news of the world in all departments, with special attention to American affairs.

"Now, with this great war as the absorbing topic, the editors devote fully half of their space to a series of admirable reviews of the war from many angles.

"These reviews are written by experts, and they will serve to fix in the mind of the newspaper reader the salient features of each week's events in this tremendous struggle.

"Fully half of these articles are translations made specially from the leading European papers, which give the American reader an excellent idea of foreign public opinion on many phases of the war."—From an Editorial by George Hamlin Fitch, in the San Francisco Chronicle.

CANNOT SAVE MOHLER'S JOB.

HE'LL LEAVE CITY'S EMPLOY TOMORROW EVENING.

Socialists flock to the fray and Councilman Roberts Urges Resolution for Investigation of Entire Utilities Board and its Corps, but Deadline Prevails.

Charles K. Mohler, chief engineer of the railroad department of the Board of Public Utilities, will step down and out of this position at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening. The city will save the $300 a month. This is the salary that Mr. Mohler has been receiving for more than two years.

This vacancy is not created by Mr. Mohler's own action, for he would like to remain, from all inferences that can be drawn from the strenuous fight made for him by his friends. The Board of Public Utilities, however, last week declared the position temporarily abolished, to take effect October 1. Members of the board themselves will carry on the work that has been handled by Mr. Mohler.

Practically all the City Council's time yesterday was taken up with the discussion of matters pertaining to the Mohler affair. Socialists flocked to the support of Mr. Mohler, and strong efforts were made to preserve the place for him, but to no avail. The only proposition presented there was a deadlock, and motion after motion was lost by this means, until the only remaining subject of final action on the new salary ordinance for employees of the Public Utilities Board, which makes no provision for the salary of a chief railroad engineer.

When the Council found itself helpless to get anywhere because of the vote of four to four on all the proposals, it finally voted to postpone action on passage of the salary ordinance until October 15, at which time President Whiffen will be back from his vacation. That Mr. Whiffen will stand with those who have opposed the retention of Mr. Mohler is a foregone conclusion, as he was decided in his stand in the meetings of the Finance Committee that arranged the budget with the Mohler salary of $300 per month omitted.

As previously conjectured, two reports were submitted by members of the special Council committee appointed to investigate the work of Mr. Mohler. Councilman Wheeler presented a voluminous report, in which the work of the railroad department was strongly upheld and Mr. Mohler, at least by inference, was given credit for practically every act of importance that the Board of Public Utilities has performed during the past two years.

The report of the two other members of the committee, Councilmen Betkowski and Snowden, sustained the position taken by the Public Utilities Board in declaring the position abolished, with the understanding that the members of the board themselves will undertake to handle the work in the interest of economy.

Councilman Roberts introduced a resolution asking for the appointment of an investigating committee to undertake a research of the work of the Public Utilities Board and its employees. This proposed the appointment of a committee composed of seven members, one to be appointed by the City Council, one each by the City Club, Municipal League, City Planning Association, Friday Morning Club, Woman's City Club and the Outlook Association.

One after the other the proposals to adopt the committee reports or the resolution of Councilman Roberts went down to defeat, because of a tie vote. Those who upheld the majority report of the special committee are Councilmen Betkowski, Conwell, Snowden and Landrum, while those who favored the Wheeler report are Councilmen Bryant, Roberts, Wheeler and Williams. A similar vote was recorded on the Roberts resolution.

Volumes of oratory were expended and "a good time was had" by Socialists and others in discussing the gas rates, aqueduct water, street railway bonding, power bonds campaign, and various other subjects that in some remote way might be connected with the controversy at hand.

The upshot of it all is that the actual situation remains unchanged—the Public Utilities Board's order to abolish the office held by Mr. Mohler still stands, and he will be out of the city's employ tomorrow night.

CEMENT FOR TRANSIT SHED.

The City Council authorized the Board of Public Works yesterday to proceed under emergency provisions to purchase from the Pacific Portland Cement Company a surplus of cement that was set aside and tested by the City Engineer's office for use by Snare & Triest on the outer harbor wharf.

By procuring this cement a saving of from six to eight weeks of time will be made over that required to receive bids and test other cements. The price quoted is the same as was made to Snare & Triest for an order covering many thousands of barrels. About 1800 barrels will be purchased at a price of $2.55 per barrel.

Say It's Extortionate.

Property owners within the assessment district for the acquisition of a site at Central avenue and Forty-fifth street for a branch public library filed a huge petition with City Clerk Wilde yesterday asking the City Council to abrogate the entire proceedings for acquisition of the site.

In this petition the declaration is made that the assessment is "exorbitant and extortionate and works a grievous hardship on the property owners who are presumed to be benefited thereby."

Better Roadway Advised.

In the present budget there is an allowance of $4000 for the purchase of rock for repairs on the San Fernando road, on which there is a continuous heavy traffic. At the time the allowance was made it was proposed to root up the present roadway and add the rock, the maintenance work to be done by the street department. The City Engineer yesterday advised the Board of Public Works that a better roadway would be obtained by widening it to eighteen feet with asphalt concrete and placing over the whole roadway a surface of asphalt, so as to provide for the heavy traffic. The board provided for the transfer of the appropriated $4000 for the payment of an asphalt wearing surface.

Would Rearrange Streets.

Ralph Rogers has petitioned the City Council and Board of Public Works for the vacation of Glassell road, between Clementina avenue and the right of way of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, and has offered in exchange for this vacation to dedicate ground for the extension of Clementina avenue. The City Engineer recommends this extension as especially desirable because it would form a direct entrance to Occidental College campus. He also recommends that York boulevard should be extended so as to form an intersection with the proposed extension of Clementina avenue, terminating at Interurban avenue.

Municipal News Briefs.

William Mead has offered to convey to the city lot 23 in tract No. 1992, for the purpose of making an extension on Ivar street. The Board of Public Works decided yesterday that it would accept the deed provided Mr. Mead will make the excavation for the necessary drainage and pay the expenses of changing the grade of Franklin avenue at this point.

The Barber-Bradley Construction Company has a building at No. 1824 East Fifteenth street, a corner of which, it has been found by surveys, extends four inches into the street. This street has recently been opened and widened under condemnation proceedings, and notice was duly served on these owners to move their buildings off the street. They have appealed to the Board of Public Works and yesterday were granted permission to continue to use the four inches of city property.

The City Attorney has given to the Board of Public Works an opinion that the present excavation ordinance cannot be applied to work proceeding under the Vrooman Act. Contractors engaged in Vrooman Act work will be given the use of the street resurfacing forces for resurfacing ditches at the rate provided for in the excavation ordinance.

The Board of Public Works yesterday granted P. W. Dolan permission to place in the alleys between Fifty-second and Fifty-third streets the surplus earth taken from the paving of Fifty-fourth street between Normandie and Western avenues, a work that will be of much benefit to the property owners and without expense to them.

The City Engineer presented to the Board of Public Works yesterday plans and profile of a proposed sewer in Fifty-third street, outside the city limits, between the proposed public school at Fifty-third street and Fourth avenue and the city.

Dr. John P. Gilmer, member of the Harbor Commission, returned to Los Angeles yesterday after a visit to Baltimore, where he was a delegate to the National Congress of Port Authorities, and where he succeeded in securing the next year's meeting for Los Angeles. He also visited New York, where he visited the large steamship company for the placing of this port on its list of ports of call.

Commissioner O'Brien of the Board of Public Works presented yesterday that he expects to be able to open the Third-street tunnel today to vehicle traffic. The false work on the tunnel arch, between the proposed public sewageways will be provided at each side. As soon as this false structure is removed the work of whitewashing the walls will be undertaken. The new lights have not yet arrived, but will be in place within a comparatively short time.

The Harbor Commission asked the City Engineer yesterday to make estimates on the cost of the proposed dredging of the area at the northern end of the turning basin and depositing the dredgings on land near the Morman Island wharf, thus creating a site that can be leased to industries. The area proposed to be dredged will be about 800 feet wide by 1500 feet long.

THREE ACTS OF DIVORCE DRAMA.

STORY OF EMBRACE AND A GUN WINS NO DECREE.

Husband Says Wife would not Tend Store While He Scored Ball Game—She Says He Put Arm Around Woman and She Tried Suicide—Both are Blamed.

A three-act drama was staged in the divorce court yesterday. The first act showed Joseph B. Barnett, the leading character. The wife played the leading role in the second act. Judge Monroe had the stage in the third.

Mr. Barnett, a cigar dealer, charged his wife with extreme cruelty. Among other incidents he related how one day when he wanted to keep score in a game of baseball played by his friends, his wife refused to tend the store. She told him he liked baseball better than business, he could close the store.

This refusal led to a scene at the store. Mrs. Barnett later appearing there and, according to Mr. Barnett, desperately attempting to shoot him with his revolver.

Mr. Barnett admitted advising her husband to close the store if he wanted to score the ball game, as she said she was cooking and could not leave the house. If a man is going to play the gun was that she found Mrs. Walter Hodson, a friend, behind the counter.

"She said, 'Hello, but I did not speak to her,' testified Mrs. Barnett. 'I felt she was in my place. I had my husband's revolver covered up in my handkerchief. He placed his hand on her shoulder, and I thought I had better end it all.'

"Shoot him, queried the court. "No, I meant to shoot myself. I took the gun in both hands and closed my eyes."

"Why didn't you shoot?" asked the court. "His father pinned my arms down so I couldn't," was the reply. "I would not have shot myself, would you?"

"I don't know. My husband took the gun away from me," testified Mrs. Barnett. "I felt she was in my place. I had my husband's revolver covered up in my handkerchief. He placed his hand on her shoulder, and I thought I had better end it all."

public for the first time. Judge Shenk refused to appoint a receiver for the reason that there is a question as to which of two boards has authority to act as trustees of the system, and continued the hearing for one week to determine this question.

In July, 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pirth, owners of property at Athens, deeded the water plant to Arthur E. Fetherstonbaugh, Francis Fildew, James Forbes, Albert Linde and Walter F. Sagar as trustees for residents of the tract. The operation of the plant was surrendered to the trustees.

Later Mr. Fetherstonbaugh and Mr. Linde resigned as trustees and renounced their obligations. The residents of Athens then held a mass meeting and elected a new board of trustees. The new board seized the pumping plant.

Mr. Forbes filed suit against Fetherstonbaugh, Linde, Fildew, James L. Douglas, H. S. Coffman, Chauncey Yates, Gus Willis, George Nelson and W. E. Funyon, the new board of trustees, demanding the appointment of a receiver. The new board, he alleges, allowed the pumping plant to break down, as a result of which, he charged, there was no water for several days.

Judge Shenk declared that inasmuch as the plant is again running there is no immediate need for a receiver. He ordered the trustees to pay Clarence C. Bryant to be appointed to that office. The trustees ask that if any receiver shall be appointed, the court name E. B. Burlingame, who is now in charge.

ASKS DIVORCE.

THEN CHANGES HER MIND.

An interesting situation developed in the alimony court yesterday. The case of Mrs. Anna E. Marks against R. P. Marks was called. The attorney for Mrs. Marks announced that the couple had made up and were living together.

One M. Marks in court?" asked Judge Monroe. "Mrs. Marks was not in court, his attorney stated."

Do you want a bench warrant issued for him?" queried the court of Attorney Munro, counsel for Mrs. Marks. "I guess we had better have one," replied Mr. Munro.

"Very well," said the court. "Is Mrs. Marks here?" "No, my client has turned me down," stated Mr. Munro. "She said she is living with her husband," explained his attorney.

"He ought to be here when his case is called," commented the court. "However, I don't object to his being in court, but when a couple starts living together after filing suit, and a difference arises, the first thing the aggrieved does is to say she is going into court and press the suit. I will make the matter straight by dismissing the suit."

Mrs. Marks was charged by his wife with cruelty.

OUT OF COURT.

ESTATE WRANGLE SETTLED.

The final distribution of the $128,996.59 estate of May Newton Levitt was ordered by Judge Rives in the Probate court yesterday. This is the closing act in what promised to be a bitter fight, including partitions of the property and motion to set aside the decision of the probate court, which was settled out of court.

Opposition to the probate of the will of Mrs. Levitt was encountered from Mrs. Newton Cattern, a sister of Mrs. Levitt. She filed a contest, alleging that Arthur E. Levitt, husband of the deceased, had procured the will by fraud and other litigation, which was settled out of court.

While the contest was in court, the parties got together. In the words of Attorney Ward Chapman, who handled the matter, "they kissed and made up." A division was made of undivided interests and property. On the strength of this, the suit was dismissed.

FIGHT REOPENED.

NOTABLE WILL CONTEST.

After an all-day argument Judge Houser yesterday afternoon took the motion for a new trial in the Holyoke will contest under submission. The latter was made by Attorneys Hahn & Hahn, representing the will, setting up that the verdict of the jury which tried the sensational case, the Bangor (Me.) lumberman, was insane when he executed his will August 8, 1911, was not in accordance with the evidence.

The testimony given before the jury was reviewed at length for and against the will and many authorities cited. The will was drawn by Attorney Hahn. Under its terms the bulk of the $600,000 estate was given to Mr. Holyoke's niece, Marjorie and Madeline Holyoke. The widow and third wife, Cora Holyoke, received $10,000 in a property settlement, and
